SIR,

I have the honor to forward herewith ~~by~~ of a memo received from the Assistant Superintendent Police Kolar, reporting on the occurrence of an infant marriage at Suldenahalli in the Kolar Taluk on or about the 7th December 1896.

2. The Police enquiry shews that an infant girl named Chenni, aged about 6 years, 6 months and 15 days and daughter of Marigendhalli Munisappah was married to one Pillaga aged 14 years and son of Suldenhalli Veerappa and that the celebration of the marriage is admitted by the parents of the bride and the bridegroom. With regard to the age of the girl, the Assistant Superintendent reports that the Patel of Perjanahally where the girl was born, produced the Counterfoil of the Register of births, wherein it is shewn that the girl was born on the 22nd May 1890.

3. Under these circumstances, I beg that sanction may be accorded to prosecute Muniappal and Veerappah, the fathers of the bride and the bridegroom for an offence under section 3 of Regulation Act. X of 1894. The vernacular papers connected with the case are herewith forwarded for reference and obliging return.

I have the honor to be,
Sir,
Your most obedient Servant,

Inspector General of Police.

Memo. Enc to 8456

At Suldenahalli, Kolar Taluk, an infant girl by name Channi the daughter of Marigendhally Munniappah was on or about the 7th December 1896 married to Pilliga a boy of 14 years, the son of Suldenahalli Veerappah at the latter's house.

This fact is admitted by both the parents and borne out by the musicians and others that attended the ceremony.

The Patel of Perjenahally where the girl was born, producing the counterfoil of the Register of births and deaths of his village, states that the girl now married was born on 22-5-90. This fact is further borne out by one Sinappah who was officiating as Patel at the time of girl's birth and made the entries in the Register.

Thus the girl's age at the date of the marriage was only Six years and 7 months.

This is therefore a clear case for prosecution.
